LONDON – 29th June 2023 – The Geothermal Energy Advancement Association (GEAA) is delighted to announce that The Australian Geothermal Association (AGA) has become GEAA’s latest Founding Member.

The Australian Geothermal Association (AGA) is the Peak Body for Australia's geothermal sector, providing a forum for individuals and organisations interested in geothermal energy information, discussion, networking, support and advocacy.

Affiliated with the International Geothermal Association (IGA), AGA was incorporated in 2016 to promote and encourage the science, technology and development of geothermal energy in Australia. Our members are individuals working in industry, academia and government, representing the full range of geothermal applications from ground source heat pumps to direct industrial heat supply, recreational bathing and wellness, and electrical power generation.

AGA president Mark Ballesteros commented: “The AGA look forward to working with the GEAA to expanding global acceptance of geothermal solutions as an important part of the energy transition.”

GEAA is a not-for-profit stakeholder-driven association that advocates increased investment and development in the Geothermal Energy space, building awareness of this sustainable energy providing low carbon power, heat, and hot water providing a cascade of end user benefits.

GEAA promotes geothermal, its future role within the global energy mix, the necessary policy and legal frameworks needed to accelerate its use.

GEAA's dedicated and focused "Working Groups" provide subject matter topics through webinars and focus white papers as subject matter briefing papers on key aspects of geothermal. GEAA membership is open globally to all those interested in advancing geothermal and its role in transitioning to a world using less hydrocarbons.
